

Science

The structure of what plants need to survive .

Name the parts of plants and flowers.
Name the jobs of the parts of a plant.

Literacy

- Pie Corbett-'Talk for Writing' approach to Literacy.
- Descriptive & Non-fiction writing
- Poetry.
- Basic skills- Handwriting.
- SPAG and phonics activities which will be applied across all curriculum areas.

Geography

Geography will be covered throughout the study of Florence Nightingale.

Outdoor Learning

Outdoor learning opportunities will be used throughout to consolidate learning.

Numeracy

- Numbers to and beyond 100.
- Writing number names in words.
- Place value of numbers H T U
- Addition and Subtraction involving money.
- Multiplication and division
- Fractions
- Time

Problem solving and data handling is a major aspect of all units.

History

- Florence Nightingale and the history of hospitals over time.

Computing

- Keeping safe online.
- Use technology to create and retrieve information.
- Using computer programmes.

Art and Design

Painting and different types of artists.

PSHE

Myself and my team.
Friendships.
Getting on and falling out.

Phonics

Revisiting sounds from Phase 3 and working up to Phase 6 to blend and segment words to help children read. These phonics skills will then be applied to writing activities.

French

Je Parle Français- This will cover the basics of the French language. In particular:
*Numbers
*Greetings and popular phrases.

Music

Singing songs with enjoyment, expression and a sense of melody. Use their bodies to keep the beat.

PE

Dance
Gymnastics

RE

Why is Jesus special to Christians?
Focus on the stories of Jesus and miracles.

What you can do to help: Support your child's basic skills talking to them about numbers, number names and simple spelling of common words. Make these apart of your daily routine where ever possible (E.g, while shopping or looking at sign posts).